How to Save Up for your Paparazzi Starter Kit

Here are quite a few ideas on how you can save up money for your Paparazzi Starter Kit! Some of these ideas are easy and some require a little more thought or work. Remember that however you choose to save for your kit, you need to actually SET ASIDE the money. If you leave it in your bank account or keep it in your wallet, it will most likely get spent! Whether you use a separate savings account, an old soup can or an envelope, be sure that your kit money is totally separate from the rest of your money. (This will be GREAT practice for keeping your business money and personal money separate which is necessary for tax purposes.) We are excited to have you as part of our Paparazzi Jewelry and Accessories team!!

1. Yard sale – Find items around the house that you aren't using anymore and sell them for CASH! All proceeds go towards your kit! You can also try virtual yard sales on Facebook, Craigslist or even Ebay. Your local newspaper may even have a free online classifieds section.

2. Bake Sale- Do this in conjunction with your yard sale or separately! Never underestimate the power of delicious cookies

3. Cookie dough sales – create an order form with different kinds of cookies. Some popular ones in our area are pumpkin chocolate chip, white chocolate macadamia nut, triple chocolate chip, sugar, chocolate chip, peanut butter and oatmeal raisin. Collect orders from friends and family. Make large batches of each kind of dough ordered and package them in disposable Tupperware containers with baking instructions written on the lid. We paid $8 for about 2 cups of batter that made 2 dozen cookies and our little neighbor who had this fundraiser had about 90% profit!

4. Early Gift- Christmas, Birthday, Anniversary – Talk to your loved one about the upcoming gift opportunity and let them know that you would like your Paparazzi Starter Kit for your gift (or early gift). Your starter kit will be the gift that keeps giving ALL YEAR LONG!

5. Babysitting/Date Night- chose a Friday or Saturday night and offer to babysit from like 5-10. Have a movie and some pizza for the kiddos and charge $15 for the night (discounts for families with more than one kid). Advertise to neighbors and friends and after just a few times, you will have enough for your kit!!

6. After School Care – Watch neighbor kids after school and help with homework. Charge a weekly rate.

This local lady just doubles up what she cooks for her family and then delivers these dinners in an aluminum pan covered in tin foil. My friend loves the hot, home-cooked meal and also loves that she can work and still feed her family a healthy meal.

These add up quick and you'll have your starter kit before you know it!
